

HH53510 DUBLINER INSULATED LONG JACKET

A classic raincoat with clean lines and lightweight insulation. Built with HELLY TECH® Protection so it's waterproof/breathable and windproof, with fully sealed seams for added protection against the elements. Its lightweight PrimaLoft® insulation adds comfort in cold weather, making it the perfect rainwear for chilly, rainy days. The insulation is 80% recycled and the water-repellent treatment is PFC-free – wins for you and the environment.
